

ANOTHER TIME ANOTHER PLACE

Hackney in the 70s & 80s

An exhibition of more than 60 images by photographer Neil Martinson goes on display at Stour Space from 1st-23rd February 2018.

Possibly the largest collection of unseen Hackney images from the 70s and 80s. It was a time when there was large scale manufacturing and Hackney still bore the scars of post-war slum clearance.

Later this month a selection from the series will be published as a photobook by Café Royal Books.

Neil Martinson was born and brought up in Hackney. Whilst still at school he started taking photographs of street scenes and later extensively documented local working lives becoming a founder, with Jo Spence, of Hackney Flashers.

Many of his images appeared in books published by Centerprise and were used by local campaigns on housing, nurseries, education and trade union rights. His work appeared in national newspapers and magazines and he has work in the collection of the National Portrait Gallery.

--

Opening: Thursday 1st February, 7-10pm, free entry
Open daily: 2nd – 22nd February, 9am-5pm, free entry

neilmartinson.photoshelter.com
www.stour.space.co.uk/portfolio/another-time-another-place

For enquiries and high-res images please contact coby@stour.space.co.uk / +44(0)208 9857827

www.stour.space.co.uk

